Dear Ms. Dupont,

We have examined, carefully, the Draft Revised Guidelines and are pleased to note that the various suggestions and comments from previous reviews have been incorporated in the new guidelines.

Cummings Jewish Centre for Seniors are gratified that we were able to contribute, as one of the consumers, to these guidelines. Our main goal has been and remains...drugs for consumers, and for seniors in particular, should be affordable, available, and effective in the required doses. The new Guidelines lead to this goal.

It has been a privilege, for me, to participate in the consultations and to read and review the various documents. I, and Cummings Centre, wish the Board success in the implementation of these Guidelines. and any future work undertaken.

Sincerely,

Lila Wolfe Druckman
